Many a free man who is sick would willingly change places with a healthy convict. A man might as well be shut out of enjoyment one way as another. If he is shut up in a cell, he cannot engage in active pleasures. He cannot see the beauties of nature and art, but he can imagine them, and so get some benefit from them. A man who is sick has these things before him, but he doesn't see them as they exist. He cannot look on anything with appreciative eyes. His physical condition warps his vision and his mentality. He cannot enjoy anything, no matter how enjoyable it may be in the abstract. A man with a foul taste in his mouth, with a bilious headache, and with poisonous refuse matter circulating all through his body cannot enjoy anything. He honestly believes that the world is all wrong, and that it is a mighty poor place to be in. He is blue, despondent, cynical. Life isn't worth living to him. Such a simple thing causes this condition that it is absurd and ridiculous to think of a sensible man femaining in it. Symptoms like these come from constipation. It is the most prevalent of all causes of sickness. It makes a man worthless for work or pleasure. It is a stubborn trouble when you do not treat it properly, and a simple one when you do. It is cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They were made for this purpose, and no other. They accomplish this purpose as no other preparation ever did. An unscrupulous druggist may try to sell you something else. Look out! It is your health that is at stake. It is your health against an extra profit on the thing he says is "just as good." Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets – don't forget –

Ef I should lose mer laziness, I sho'ly hat ter think Ob de comfort an' inj'yment dat I'd miss,

Dat ain' so many years In dis life ob joy and tears An' we may as well jes' make de mos

When I sees de people frettin' tell dey reach de graveyahd's brink

A fussin' an' a fallin' in dah haste,

Mer lucky stahs I bless

Dat I's got dis laziness,

An' I ain't a gwinter let none go ter waste.

Ef I should lose mer laziness, de sun would shine in vain On de ole po'ch what de honeysuckle

So I grabs mer opportunity-it may not come again,
An' I let's de hours pass on, a-driftin' free;

An' de perfumed breezes stray Ter keep comp'ny wif mer lazines
